

WHEREAS: We must rely to a great extent on the lessons of history, whether our goal is to instruct or entertain, to increase needed production or facilitate the ways of commerce, to build cities or govern others, to explore uncharted space or establish a family;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Albert H. Quie, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim February, 1979, as and urge teachers to promote the study of American History in our schools and to instill in our young people a high regard for the great men and women in our Nation's past.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twelfth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventy-nine and of the State the one hundred twenty-first.
