Sir:

I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your note of July 30, 1924, and in reply I take pleasure in informing you that provisional recognition is accorded Mr. Nils Leon Jaenson as Vice Consul of Your Government at Minneapolis, Minnesota, pending the receipt of his commission and the issuance of his exequatur.

Due note has been made of the statement contained in your note concerning the transfer of Mr. Theophilus Ludvig Immanuel Wessén from Minneapolis to New York, who will enter upon his duties at his new post at the end of the year.

Accept, Sir, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.

For the Acting Secretary of State:

(signed) J. BUTLER WRIGHT.

Captain Axel F. Wallenberg,
Minister of Sweden.

It is hereby certified that the above copy was made at the Swedish legation on this date and is correct.

Washington, D.C. August 29, 1924.
