

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: Cities are an integral part of the complex social, political and economic system known as the "American Way of Life"; and
- WHEREAS: City government provides a flexible and responsible method of providing a wide range of services to the citizens of the State of Minnesota;
- WHEREAS: There is a strong partnership between cities, the State, and other units of local government in serving the citizens of the State of Minnesota; and
- WHEREAS: It is desirable to recognize the residents of cities, including locally elected officials, city staff members and citizen volunteers, who participate together in enabling city government to efficiently meet the needs of the citizens of the State of Minnesota;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Albert H. Quie, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of February 26 to March 2, 1979, to be and urge all citizens to avail themselves of this opportunity to learn more about city government and how they as citizens may actively participate and become involved in city government.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this ninth day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred seventy-nine, and of the State the one hundred twenty-first.
