

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Parental influence is a significant determinant of a young person's personality development and social adjustment; and

WHEREAS: Many young boys and girls are missing the healthy, helpful guidance of a father or mother in their lives; and

WHEREAS: This absence of a father or mother can create an unfavorable situation for the affected young person as well as for the community and state; and

WHEREAS: Volunteers participating in the Big Brother-Big Sister organizations throughout the nation are dedicated to filling this need in young persons' lives, offering friendship and gentle guidance so important to the boys and girls they serve;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Albert H. Quie, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of February 18 through February 24, 1979, to be
