

Proclamation

STATE OF MINNESOTA
DEPARTMENT OF STATE
FILED
MAR - 9 1979

Jean Anderson Shaw
Secretary of State

WHEREAS: Friends of free enterprise at home and abroad recognize that economic freedom is essential to political freedom and personal liberty; and:

WHEREAS: Free enterprise has been a major factor in the progress of our great nation and in the prosperity of its citizens; and

WHEREAS: Free enterprise has been acknowledged by peoples throughout the world as the economic system which creates material wealth and abundance, while safeguarding the principle of individual freedom; and

WHEREAS: Economic freedom requires an informed public, committed to the principles which undergird the free enterprise system;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Albert H. Quie, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of March 11 through March 17, 1979, to be in Minnesota, and urge all citizens to observe this week in an appropriate fashion.

FREE ENTERPRISE WEEK

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this ninth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred seventy-nine, and of the State the one hundred twenty-first.

Albert H. Quie
GOVERNOR

Jean Anderson Shaw
