

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Full utilization of every individual's abilities and maximum realization of every individual's goals is an ideal to which we are committed as a society; and

WHEREAS: Professional organizations are an effective means of assuring that each person's competence in his or her chosen occupation is appropriately developed and recognized, to the benefit of that person as well as society as a whole; and

WHEREAS: Credit Women International is such a professional organization, dedicated to helping women in credit occupations advance themselves through education and personal development; and

WHEREAS: In its 45th year of being, Credit Women International has been a helpful force in the careers of thousands of women, to the benefit of those individuals, the credit-consuming public, and our entire state and nation;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Albert H. Quie, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the month of April, 1979, to be
