

Proclamation

REAS: Among the most cherished American ideals are those of personal liberty and maximum individual freedom under the law; and

REAS: Civil rights legislation of recent years has underscored these ideals and given them specific legal standing; and

REAS: One important aspect of individual freedom is the right for each person to live where that person chooses, and when and for as long as that person chooses or can afford; and

REAS: The right to fair housing was codified in Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968; and

REAS: Effective exercise of all rights is enhanced by widespread public awareness of those rights;

Therefore, I, Albert H. Quie, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the month of April, 1979, to be

FAIR HOUSING MONTH

STATE OF MINNESOTA
DEPARTMENT OF STATE
FILED

Minnesota, and urge my fellow citizens to join with the Minnesota Association of Realtors and the Department of Housing and Urban Development in this observance.

Furthermore, I encourage all Minnesotans to become familiar with and support to the best measure the concept and practice of fair housing in our state.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twenty-seventh day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred seventy-nine, and of the State the one hundred twenty-first.
