

Proclamation

REAS: The education of our children is one of the most important responsibilities undertaken by society; and

REAS: Public and private schools provide learning opportunities in a variety of subject areas, building from the foundation of each child's basic reading and math skills; and

REAS: Some children require special assistance to properly develop these critical math and reading abilities; and

REAS: Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act provides public and private school children with additional instructional materials and personnel to assist those students performing below grade level in reading and math and

REAS: The effectiveness of Title I programs is enhanced by parental involvement and public understanding of Title I objectives and methods; and

I, THEREFORE, I, Albert H. Quie, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of May 6 through May 12, 1979, to be

TITLE I AWARENESS WEEK

STATE OF MINNESOTA
DEPARTMENT OF STATE
FILED
APR 25 1979

Joan Anderson Howe
Secretary of State

320860D

Minnesota, and urge all citizens to become acquainted with Title I programs in our public and private schools.

Furthermore, I encourage interested Minnesotans to visit a Title I program, and become actively involved in the promotion of quality education for all children in our State.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this third day of May the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred seventy-nine, and of the State the one hundred twenty-first.

Albert H. Quie

GOVERNOR

Joan Anderson Howe