

Proclamation

WHEREAS: In 1979, the International Year of the Child, there is heightened concern throughout the world with the welfare of all children; and

WHEREAS: Among the most significant of these concerns is that our children be assured a healthy start in life; and

WHEREAS: Birth defects are a major obstacle to this dream, threatening children of every racial and socio-economic group; and

WHEREAS: The National Foundation -- March of Dimes is working to solve this most serious of child health problems through its support of medical services and research, and programs of education;

AND, THEREFORE, I, Albert H. Quie, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the month of May, 1979, to be
