

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Parents Without Partners, Inc., is an international, non-profit, non-sectarian, educational organization devoted to the welfare and interests of single parents and their children; and

WHEREAS: The primary endeavor of these conscientious single parents is to bring their children to healthy maturity, with the full sense of being loved and accepted as persons, and with the same prospects for normal adulthood as children who mature with their two parents together; and

WHEREAS: Through approximately 1,000 chapters throughout the United States, Canada and other countries, Parents Without Partners has helped countless adults and children to benefit from professional and educational services which cooperate closely with these Parents Without Partners chapters, thereby enabling them to help themselves to a greater understanding and ability to handle the many difficulties involved in their state of life; and

WHEREAS: The Northland Regional Council of Minnesota will sponsor a conference of Parents Without Partners, Inc. at the Hotel Radisson South in Bloomington from May 4 through May 6, 1979;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Albert H. Quie, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of April 29 through May 6, 1979, to be
