

Proclamation

- REAS: Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC) programs provide their participants with excellent training and experience in leadership and management, and foster a sense of service to country; and
- REAS: Many young Minnesota men and women are members of ROTC detachments in the secondary schools, colleges, and universities of our state; and
- REAS: ROTC graduates from the State of Minnesota have served and are serving with dedication and distinction as members of the Armed Forces, and carry with them valuable abilities that make them leaders in other professional and community settings as well;

THEREFORE, I, Albert H. Quie, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby claim May 5, 1979, to be

ROTC DAY

Minnesota, and urge all citizens to be mindful of the service, dedication and pose of ROTC in the life of our nation.
