

Proclamation

WHEREAS: University of Minnesota athletic programs have long been a source of great pride to the people of our state; and

WHEREAS: More essential to a quality athletic program than, even, students with raw athletic ability are coaches who can guide the development and use of this ability; and

WHEREAS: The well-developed reputation for excellence and good sportsmanship of the University of Minnesota's hockey program is a tribute to the team's outstanding coaching staff; and

WHEREAS: University of Minnesota hockey teams under head coach Herb Brooks have captured numerous titles in the seven years of his tenure, including the NCAA Ice Hockey Championship in three of the past seven seasons; and

WHEREAS: Herb Brooks, a former Gopher hockey letterman himself, has played on two United States Olympic teams and several United States National teams, and will be head coach of the United States Olympic hockey team competing at Lake Placid in 1980; and

WHEREAS: The impressive career of Herb Brooks as head hockey coach at the University of Minnesota has brought recognition to the school, the state, and the athletes whose skills he has helped to sharpen;

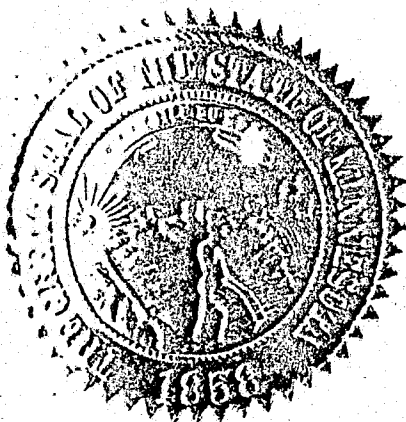

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Albert H. Quie, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby extend sincere thanks on behalf of the people of Minnesota to

HERB BROOKS
