

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: Arv Johnson has an ability even greater than that of most politicians to endlessly visit local party conventions; and
- WHEREAS: Arv Johnson has the whitest, sharpest goatee to be found in this area or any other; and
- WHEREAS: Arv Johnson has fooled no one through these many years... we all know that he is really a misplaced Dakota cowboy; and
- WHEREAS: Arv Johnson has the "perfect" radio voice, almost soft and pleasant enough to sell expensive French perfume; and
- WHEREAS: Arv Johnson has mastered the art of letting his "victims" tell their story straight... because he knows he needn't try to embarrass them when they continually do it so very well themselves; and
- WHEREAS: Arv Johnson is truly the most accomplished, respected radio journalist in these parts; and
- WHEREAS: Arv Johnson is himself an institution in Minnesota politics;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Albert H. Quie, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Saturday, June 9, 1979, to be in Minnesota, and extend the gratitude of the people of our state for Arv's many years of thoughtful, incisive reporting, and wish him well in future endeavors.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this eighth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred seventy-nine, and of the State the one hundred twenty-second.
