

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS: The Minnesota Masonry Institute and the Minnesota Concrete and Masonry Contractors Association are conducting their seventh annual campaign to enhance public awareness of the versatility, economy and aesthetics of concrete and masonry products; and

WHEREAS: The Minnesota Masonry Institute and the Minnesota Concrete and Masonry Contractors Association have provided the design community with technical assistance and the general public with practical masonry expertise in the construction of quality, energy-efficient buildings for homes and businesses; and

WHEREAS: More than 12,000 Minnesotans are actively involved in the concrete and masonry industry, contributing daily to the strength of our economy and the well-being of all citizens;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Albert H. Quie, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of July 15 through July 21, 1979, to be in Minnesota, and urge all citizens to reflect on the many benefits we all receive from this important industry.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this eighteenth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred seventy-nine, and of the State the one hundred twenty-second.
