

WHEREAS: The Governor's Conference on the Lighted School, convened by Governor Harold LeVander on December 5, 1969, held the beginnings of the notion of community education; and

WHEREAS: Since that gathering, community education has come to operate in more than 300 Minnesota school districts, and our state has risen to a position of national leadership in this field of endeavor; and

WHEREAS: In 1979, at the tenth anniversary of that important conference, the idea that our schools should serve everyone in the community, from pre-schoolers through senior citizens, is continuing to expand in our state, and has a promising future;

NOW, THEREFORE, WE, Albert H. Quie and Lou Wangberg, Governor and Lieutenant Governor, of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of December 3 through 7, 1979, to be in Minnesota, and commend all involved in this program that enhances the lives of thousands of our citizens.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this tenth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred seventy-nine, and of the State the one hundred twenty-second.
