

Proclamation

WHEREAS: The role of an Executive Housekeeper is that of a manager whose skills must include bringing together human effort, social sciences, sociology, psychology and human relations, as well as communicative, natural sciences and administrative knowledge; and

WHEREAS: The National Executive Housekeepers Association celebrates 50 years of service and growth; and

WHEREAS: During these 50 years the National Executive Housekeepers Association has grown from round table discussion to cooperation with educators to develop college level programs for the education of future Executive Housekeepers; and

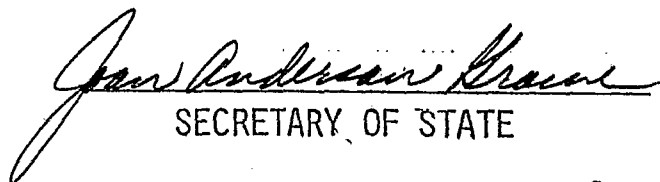

WHEREAS: The National Executive Housekeepers Association declares September 9 - 15, 1979, to be Executive Housekeepers Week;

NOW, THEREFORE, WE, Albert H. Quie and Lou Wangberg, Governor and Lieutenant Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of September 9 - 15, 1979, to be in Minnesota, in recognition of Professional Housekeepers of Hotels, Motels, Schools, Institutions and Health Care Facilities; and I urge every citizen of the state to recognize and appreciate the outstanding efforts and superior service provided by Executive Housekeepers in this state.

EXECUTIVE HOUSEKEEPERS WEEK

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twenty-seventh day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred seventy-nine, and of the State the one hundred twenty-second.

SECRETARY OF STATE

GOVERNOR

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

32324