

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Society makes ever-increasing demands on the public to be flexible and aware of assistance through which they can be equipped to adapt to career changes several times in a working life; and

WHEREAS: Due to rapid social and technological changes in recent years, the field of counseling has expanded to offer an increasing diverse variety of available services to individual citizens; and

WHEREAS: Readily available interpretation of the many choices and career guidance options is advantageous in the selection and transfer of career possibilities; and

WHEREAS: National Career Guidance Week serves this instructive communicative purpose for the individual because it encourages concentrated attention to the importance and values of career education;

NOW, THEREFORE, WE, Albert H. Quie and Lou Wangberg, Governor and Lieutenant Governor of the State of Minnesota do hereby proclaim the week of November 4 - 10, 1979, to be in Minnesota, and urge all citizens of the state to observe this week by making themselves better acquainted with career guidance, its purposes and programs by visiting their schools or by their area of participation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twenty-seventh day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred seventy-nine, and of the State the one hundred twenty-second.
