

Proclamation

WHEREAS: The need to provide meaningful opportunities for the youth of this state that encourage personal growth, family and community interaction, and the development of skills for perceiving and for responding to life's significant events is more essential today than ever before; and

WHEREAS: It is the purpose of the 4-H Program to meet these needs through a focus on helping young people acquire life skills, better enabling them to physically, socially and psychologically relate to their changing environment by using knowledge as a means of making valuable contributions to man and society; and

WHEREAS: 4-H Programs involve over 68,000 young Minnesotans from both rural and urban areas of this state in these pursuits in over 2,000 clubs under the skilled leadership of more than 17,000 adult leaders; and

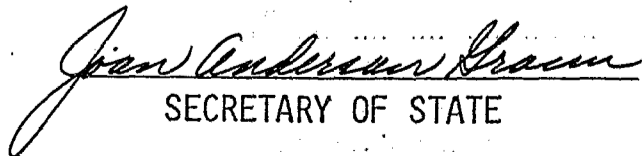

WHEREAS: All events and activities of 4-H Clubs provide the opportunity for realization of personal potential and increased understanding of the challenges of the community, state and country;

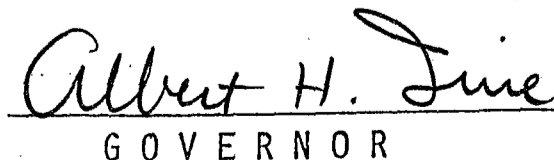

NOW, THEREFORE, WE, Albert H. Quie and Lou Wangberg, Governor and Lieutenant Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of October 7 - 13, 1979, to be in Minnesota, and urge all citizens of the state to observe this week with increased awareness and appreciation of the 4-H Programs through continued support and participation in their many functions and events.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twenty-seventh day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred seventy-nine, and of the State the one hundred twenty-second.
