

WHEREAS: Cake decorating is an ancient art which has taken many unique forms; and

WHEREAS: The beauty of cake decoration is both magnificent and varied all over the world; and

WHEREAS: It lends itself to the spirit of festivity and goodwill during times of celebration; and

WHEREAS: Minnesota members of the International Cake Exploration Society will attend the Annual Ices Convention to be held the weekend of September 28 through 30 in Providence, Rhode Island;

NOW, THEREFORE, WE, Albert H. Quie and Lou Wangberg, Governor and Lieutenant Governor, of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim September 28, 29, and 30, 1979, to be in Minnesota, and urge all citizens to give appropriate recognition to those artists whose creativity enhances those special occasions when a decorated cake is the center of attraction.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this eighteenth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred seventy-nine, and of the State the one hundred twenty-second.
