

WHEREAS: Minnesota is a highly developed state pioneered by its hardy forefathers, and each generation in turn has made significant contributions to aid the following generation; and

WHEREAS: Minnesota has made great progress in the fields of medicine, engineering, and other areas with a view toward the betterment of mankind; and

WHEREAS: Minnesota proudly recognizes that each nation and ethnic group has made great progress and shared this progress with all mankind;

NOW, THEREFORE, WE, Albert H. Quie and Lou Wangberg, Governor and Lieutenant Governor, of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim October 24, 1979, to be in Minnesota, and urge all citizens to be supportive of their fellow man and sensitive to their needs and let us invite all nations of the world to share with us in mankind's recognition of its dignity.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this eighteenth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred seventy-nine and of the State the one hundred twenty-second.
