

WHEREAS: October has been designated as National Hobby Month by a Resolution of the United States Senate; and

WHEREAS: Constructive hobbies have traditionally contributed to the ingenuity, education, career motivation and good citizenship of our nation's youth; and to the mental and physical health and interests of our older citizens providing through these activities an avenue for creative self expression; and

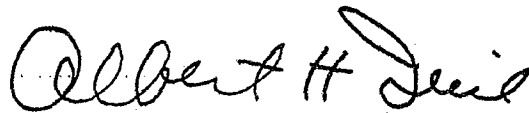

WHEREAS: Many residents of our State and numerous national organizations, many with affiliates in our State, join with many of our schools, in participating in this annual event;

NOW, THEREFORE, WE, Albert H. Quie and Lou Wangberg, Governor and Lieutenant Governor of the State of Minnesota do hereby proclaim the month of October, 1979, to be in Minnesota, and extend my congratulations to all those who by being involved in the month's activities contribute to the general welfare of their communities.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this eighteenth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred seventy-nine and of the State the one hundred twenty-second.
