

WHEREAS: Members of the Minnesota Association of Legal Secretaries adhere to a strict Code of Ethics, maintaining the highest standards in their contacts with government, courts, law offices, clients, and all persons; and

WHEREAS: The efficiency of the professional services of legal secretaries is of first importance to government, the courts, and to attorneys and their clients; and

WHEREAS: One of the aims and purposes of the Minnesota Association of Legal Secretaries is to further the education of its members and to increase their knowledge of the law; and

WHEREAS: It is in the public interest that legal secretaries have the opportunity to observe the government with which they are so closely associated by reason of their profession as legal secretaries;

NOW, THEREFORE, WE, Albert H. Quie and Lou Wangberg, Governor and Lieutenant Governor, of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of October 7 through 13, 1979, to be in Minnesota, and urge all citizens to recognize and appreciate the safeguards to our liberty provided by our government of laws and by the orderly process of our courts.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this eighteenth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred seventy-nine and of the State the one hundred twenty-second.
