

WHEREAS: The multi-housing industry in Minnesota recognizes its vital role in helping to produce housing to meet the needs of the citizens of this State; and

WHEREAS: The multi-housing industry acknowledges its responsibility to provide the residents of apartments, condominiums and other forms of multiple housing and the communities in which they are located with the highest possible standards of quality and service; and

WHEREAS: The multi-housing industry is dedicated to building and managing multiple dwellings which will provide residents with health and life safety with the human values of pride, dignity, and security; and

WHEREAS: The multi-housing industry constitutes a major factor in the economic well-being of Minnesota by providing employment, utilizing capital investment, purchasing the goods and services of other businesses in the State and adding to the tax base of local communities;

NOW, THEREFORE, WE, Albert H. Quie and Lou Wangberg, Governor and Lieutenant Governor, of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of November 18 through 24, 1979, to be in Minnesota, and encourage all citizens in the State to recognize the vital contributions of the multi-housing industry.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this eighteenth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred seventy-nine, and of the State the one hundred twenty-second.
