

WHEREAS: The National Office Products Association, representing more than 6,000 members who manufacture and sell office supplies, office furniture, and office machines, will celebrate its 75th Anniversary in October of 1979; and

WHEREAS: Our Association represents a $20 billion a year industry that serves the growing, changing needs of the office, providing new products and techniques for improving the efficiency and productivity of office workers throughout the country; and

WHEREAS: Our 1979 Convention will climax the 75th Anniversary celebration of our Association's founding on October 8, 1904;

NOW, THEREFORE, WE Albert H. Quie and Lou Wangberg, Governor and Lieutenant Governor, of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of October 1 through 8, 1979, to be in Minnesota, and encourage member firms throughout the country to celebrate and promote this memorable occasion.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this eighteenth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred seventy-nine, and of the State the one hundred twenty-second.
