

WHEREAS: The State of Minnesota has established the policy of state support for local planning and development of services designed to protect and improve people's health within their own community with the passage of the Community Health Services Act of 1976; and

WHEREAS: The Act focuses on programs designed to prevent disease, to promote health, to provide alternatives to institutional care, and to provide a community focus for citizens' efforts to be responsible for their own health; and

WHEREAS: State and local government officials and their citizen advisors are working cooperatively to develop and maintain an integrated system of community health services with state guidelines and standards;

NOW, THEREFORE, WE, Albert H. Quie and Lou Wangberg, Governor and Lieutenant Governor of the State of Minnesota do hereby proclaim the week of October 15 through 19, 1979 as in Minnesota, and urge all citizens to recognize the outstanding community development achievements of local government officials, advisory committee members and medical consultants in providing community health services in eighty-four Minnesota counties.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this eighth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred seventy-nine, and of the State the one hundred twenty-second.
