

WHEREAS: Credit unions provide an invaluable means, whereby consumers may pool their savings and assist themselves to fill their needs for credit at low cost; and

WHEREAS: Credit unions have proven an effective and versatile tool for combating usury, unfair credit practices, educating consumers and encouraging thrift; and

WHEREAS: These credit unions not only promote the economic security of their members, but also strengthen democracy, promote consumer education, encourage individual responsibility and the practice of true brotherhood and thus benefit our entire community; and

WHEREAS: The credit union movement in Minnesota is observing its fiftieth anniversary; and

WHEREAS: The Minnesota League of Credit Unions has been the statewide organization through which credit unions have banded together for the common good for half a century, and proven the value of its services;

NOW, THEREFORE, WE, Albert H. Quie and Lou Wangberg, Governor and Lieutenant Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim October 26 and 27, 1979 to be

MINNESOTA LEAGUE OF CREDIT UNION DAYS

and the month of October, 1979, to be in Minnesota; and urge all citizens to recognize the many benefits brought to them through credit unions.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this eighth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred seventy-nine, and of the State the one hundred twenty-second.
