

WHEREAS: Mothers-in-Law have become truly a treasure without price, to many families, and their unselfish concern and support becomes a cornerstone of a good marriage; and

WHEREAS: Mothers-in-Law have borne the indignity of countless jokes with grace and good humor; and

WHEREAS: Mothers-in-Law have continued to serve their families and communities in positive ways that add so much to the quality of life; and

WHEREAS: The general public has shown a desire to recognize the contributions of America's "other mothers" by supporting the designation of a special day for Mothers-in-Law;

NOW, THEREFORE, WE, Albert H. Quie and Lou Wangberg, Governor and Lieutenant Governor of the State of Minnesota do hereby proclaim October 28, 1979 as in Minnesota, and urge all citizens to honor their Mothers-in-Law for the many contributions they have made to home and family.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this eighth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred seventy-nine, and of the State the one hundred twenty-second.
