

WHEREAS: Productivity has been a hallmark of American enterprise and, if sufficiently pursued, can once again aid our nation's sound development; and

WHEREAS: The American Institute of Industrial Engineers and its Twin City Chapter, as professional practitioners in productivity improvement, are emphasizing the vital need to meet the productivity challenge facing this nation; and

WHEREAS: The citizens of Minnesota are equal partners in the national force needed to reverse the downward trend in productivity;

NOW, THEREFORE, WE, Albert H. Quie and Lou Wangberg, Governor and Lieutenant Governor of the State of Minnesota do hereby proclaim the month of October, 1979 to be in Minnesota, and urge all citizens to seek ways to improve individual and collective productivity throughout industry, business, and government.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this eighth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred seventy-nine and of the State the one hundred twenty-second.
