

WHEREAS: More than 20,000 young people in Minnesota are newspaper carriers; and

WHEREAS: These young people show extraordinary ambition and willingness to accept responsibility; and

WHEREAS: Newspaper carriers operate as independent contractors to the state's newspapers, therefore learning how to operate a small business as well as how to deal with people; and

WHEREAS: Newspaper carriers provide a service which makes news easily available to the public; and

WHEREAS: This effort helps to promote freedom of the press; and

WHEREAS: Each year a special day is set aside to recognize the efforts, initiative, creativity, and dedication of newspaper carriers throughout Minnesota;

NOW, THEREFORE, WE, Albert H. Quie and Lou Wangberg, Governor and Lieutenant Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Saturday, October 13, 1979, to be in Minnesota, and urge all citizens to recognize this service provided by our young people in the state.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this tenth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred seventy-nine, and of the State the one hundred twenty-second.
