

As the year draws to a close, it is fitting that we set aside a special day for thanks and prayer.

More than three centuries ago, our forefathers, gave thanks to God for new land, a new freedom, and a harvest that they hoped would provide enough food to make it through the winter.

Now, more than 350 years later, we live in more plentiful times. Our abundance and affluence still is the greatest in the world. Our biggest problem is not in having enough, but in being able to distribute what we have.

We need a day of thanks to the Lord for His great goodness.

We need a day of prayer for forgiveness for having strayed from His precepts.

For the new year, we need to say:

"Grant that a spiritual richness may equal our material wealth,
Deliver us from our passions, prides, appetites and other frailties,
Subdue the hate and anger that tears at mankind,
Visit Thy tender care on all those who have suffered,
Lead this nation through submission to Thy will to perfect enjoyment of peace, harmony and union,
Instill in us a spirit of true love to all our fellowmen,
Accept our thanks for all of the mercies bestowed upon us through Thy grace."

In order that we may properly observe a day of penitence and thanksgiving,
I, Albert H. Quilley, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Thursday, November 22, 1979, as

and I urge all Minnesotans to attend their respective houses of worship to carry out the purpose of this Holy Day.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this fifteenth day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventy-nine, and of the State the one hundred twenty-second.
