

Proclamation

WHEREAS: We live in an age of advance technology and mechanization, which imposes challenges and strains on us and our successors; and

WHEREAS: Clear minds are required to make difficult decisions, operate complex machinery, provide courageous programs to right society's inequities, and maintain a concerned perspective on the future; and

WHEREAS: The body, the mind, and the spirit of the individual can be impaired by the use of alcohol, drugs, and tobacco; and

WHEREAS: The use of these substances can impede societal progress and stability by contributing to traffic fatalities, broken relationships, and crime;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Albert H. Quie, Governor of the State of Minnesota do hereby proclaim the week of April 21 through April 27, 1980, to be
