

Proclamation

WHEREAS: The Congress of the United States and the Minnesota Legislature has recognized the imperative need for job training programs and the responsibility vocational-technical education has in providing this service; and

WHEREAS: Individual career goals and economic growth of the state are enhanced by training programs in occupational areas being demanded by business, industry, and labor; and

WHEREAS: Strong state vocational leadership and support is serving to ensure that educational needs of citizens at the high school, post-high and adult levels are being met; and

WHEREAS: Through vocational instruction, guidance and counseling and special support services, individuals are assisted in reaching their personal goals; and

WHEREAS: The American Vocational Association has designated the second week of February as Vocational Education Week and is supported by Minnesota vocational organizations in this endeavor;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Albert H. Quie, Governor of the State of Minnesota do hereby proclaim February 10 through February 16, 1980, as in Minnesota, and have asked Lieutenant Governor Lou Wangberg to prepare this proclamation for my signature and disseminate the same. I further urge all citizens to become aware of the services and opportunities available through Minnesota vocational-technical education.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this fifth day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred eighty, and of the State the one hundred twenty-second.
