

Proclamation

WHEREAS: The drafting profession makes extensive contributions to all people, businesses, and governments; and

WHEREAS: Increased public understanding and appreciation of the role of the drafting profession in our contemporary society can only lead to more effective usage of the drafter's talents; and

WHEREAS: The more than 450,000 men and women engaged in the drafting profession are proud of their work, and are eager to serve the nation with their many talents;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Albert H. Quie, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of April 6 through April 12, 1980, to be in Minnesota, and have asked Lieutenant Governor Lou Wangberg to prepare this proclamation for my signature and disseminate the same. I further urge citizens of the State of Minnesota to acquaint themselves with the contributions of the drafting profession to their well-being.

NATIONAL DRAFTING WEEK

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this fifth day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred eighty, and of the Independence of the State the one hundred twenty-second.
