

Proclamation

WHEREAS: A viable, well-staffed Army is an important component of our national security; and

WHEREAS: The United States Army has existed successfully in a no-draft environment for the past seven years; and

WHEREAS: Through their enlistment, highly qualified young Minnesotans have contributed significantly to the success of the volunteer Army; and

WHEREAS: These young Minnesotans have helped to create and maintain the most superior Army in its 205 year history;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Albert H. Quie, Governor of the State of Minnesota do hereby proclaim the month of March, 1980, to be in Minnesota, and have asked Lieutenant Governor Lou Wangberg to prepare this proclamation for my signature and disseminate the same. I further urge all citizens to pay tribute to the noble objectives of the United States Army Recruiting Command.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this eleventh day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred eighty, and of the State the one hundred twenty-second.
