

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Pest Control Operators help to protect the health and well-being of us all, in places we live, work, and play; and

WHEREAS: Pest Control Operators make a valuable contribution to our society by helping to prevent the spread of disease; and

WHEREAS: Pest Control Operators help prevent the destruction of valuable food supplies and property; and

WHEREAS: The Minnesota Pest Control Association contributes to this by encouraging a high degree of safety consciousness and professional responsibility; and

WHEREAS: Pest Control Operators help disseminate important information in relating matters;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Albert H. Quie, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the month of June, 1980, to be in Minnesota, and have asked Lieutenant Governor Lou Wangberg to prepare his proclamation for my signature and disseminate the same. I further wish to take this opportunity to express our thanks to the members of the industry that is so vital to our American way of life.

FURTHERMORE, I would also like to highlight this important task and to increase the public awareness to the valuable work they do.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this eleventh day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred eighty, and of the State the one hundred twenty-second.

Albert H. Quie
