

Proclamation

WHEREAS: ORT (Organization for Rehabilitation through Training) has, as the vocational and technical education program of the Jewish people, dedicated itself for the last century to the operation of a global network of vocational and technical installations; and

WHEREAS: Women's American ORT has pledged itself anew -- in this Centennial year of ORT's operations -- to enlarging the worldwide ORT system; to doubling the ORT-Israel network; to completing the spectacular ORT School of Engineering at the Hebrew University; to confronting and defeating anti-Semitism; to backing Soviet Jewry and human rights everywhere; to supporting the people of Israel in their search for peace and security, to promoting the growth of the new Bramson ORT Technical Institute in New York City, as a model "breakthrough-in-education" school for the entire country and to advancing the cause of quality education; and

WHEREAS: Women's American ORT, the largest group in the 40-nation ORT family, has pledged itself anew -- in this 100th year of ORT's belief in education-power -- to enroll tens of thousands of new members in order for the organization to achieve its goal of meaningful education for a meaningful democratic society;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Albert H. Quie, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim March 12, 1980, to be
