

Proclamation

WHEREAS: All young people are creative by nature, and enthusiastically express themselves through a variety of artistic means; and

WHEREAS: The young person's artistic experiences encourage the exploration and personalization of the physical world, while instilling discipline which will serve the individual well in a variety of life's settings; and

WHEREAS: The young artist learns to respect his own work and abilities and the products and talents of others as unique gifts to be appreciated; and

WHEREAS: The development of any individual's artistic abilities, and all human potential, is a truly worthwhile pursuit which deserves the encouragement of all who value a healthy, diverse, productive society;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Albert H. Quie, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the month of March, 1980, to be in Minnesota, and have asked Lieutenant Governor Lou Wangberg to prepare this proclamation for my signature and disseminate the same. I further urge all citizens to support our art educators and young people who dedicate themselves to the development of creative artistic expression.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this eleventh day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred eighty, and of the State the one hundred twenty-second.
