

Proclamation

- REAS: More families own life insurance than any other form of savings; and
- REAS: Life insurance has become a base of family financial security planning; and
- REAS: Life insurance renders another important service by carrying the policyholder's dollars back to the local community, where they go to work as investments, aiding all segments of the economy and the community as a whole; and
- REAS: The Minnesota State Association of Life Underwriters is cooperating in a program to inform the public of the many aspects of life insurance;

THEREFORE, I, Albert H. Quie, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of April 20 through April 26, 1980 to be

Minnesota, and have asked Lieutenant Governor Lou Wangberg to prepare a proclamation for my signature and disseminate the same. Further, I urge all Minnesotans to reflect upon the services life insurance provides, and consider how they can put these advantages to work in their own lives.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this seventh day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred eighty, and of the State the one hundred and twenty-second.
