PROPOSED CHARTER AMENDMENT

ST. PAUL CITY CHARTER

Sec. 2.01 -- There shall be a mayor elected by the voters of the city at large, and seven councilpersons, each elected from a council district as provided herein, and such judges and other officials as are provided by statute and elected as provided therein.

Sec. 2.04 -- ADD: "or when a council person ceases to reside within the council district from which he was elected."

Sec. 4.01.1 -- COUNCIL DISTRICTS. Each member of the council shall be elected from a separate district which is substantially equal in population to all other districts. Each councilperson shall be a resident of the district from which he is elected. Voters may only vote for a candidate for the council district seat within which the voters reside.

Sec. 4.01.02 -- INITIAL DISTRICTS. The division of the city into seven contiguous districts of substantially equal population, and the serial numbering of same will be effected by a resolution of Charter Commission after public hearings on said districting. The public hearing shall be held after published notice of said hearings, and opportunity to speak shall be allowed members of the public upon such reasonable terms as the Commission shall adopt. The Commission shall adopt its districting resolution by a majority vote of its entire membership, and file it in the office of the City Clerk at least sixty days prior to the day on which filings open for the first city primary election occurring after the 1980 city election. The council shall provide for a sum of money, adequate for this purpose, to be used by the Commission to hire staff to aid it in preparing its districting plan.

Sec. 4.01.03 -- MANDATORY REDISTRICTING. After every federal decennial census the Charter Commission shall redistrict in the manner described above. The Commission shall redefine the council districts so as to make them substantially equal.

Sec. 7.04. Name on Primary Ballot. Not later than thirty-five days nor more than forty-nine days before the primary election, any person eligible may, by filing an affidavit and payment of $50.00 to the city clerk, have his name placed on the primary election ballot. Each person desiring to have his name placed on the primary ballot for councilperson shall state in his affidavit of candidacy the district for which he is a candidate. (The following replaces existing paragraph Sec 7.06) "Sec. 7.06. City Election Candidates. If the law prescribes that the election of mayor and councilperson be by party designation, the candidate of each party receiving the highest number of votes in the primary election for the office of mayor or the office of councilperson in any district shall be declared the nominee of his party for the office at the next city election and his name shall be placed on the municipal election ballot together with the name of any candidate for the office nominated by petition in accordance with the law. If the law does not provide for election by party designation, the two candidates for mayor receiving the highest number of votes in the primary election for the office, and the two candidates for the council in each district receiving the highest number of votes for council in that district shall be declared the nominees and the only nominees for the respective offices at the next city election.
