

Proclamation

National Safety Town Center is a non-profit organization dedicated to the importance of preschool and early childhood safety education;

Safety Town program objectives are: to introduce the importance of awareness to our young people; to allow our teenagers, who serve as instructors, the opportunity to further their knowledge and awareness of safety; to include parents in classes with their children to understand their children's physical and mental development as it relates to their capabilities; to encourage "community involvement" by providing an opportunity for industry, organizations, city and school officials, etc., to work together in organizing and conducting this extremely important program for their community; and to make safety of our most precious resource...our children... is of great importance to everyone; and

National Safety Town Center of Cleveland, Ohio, is sponsoring a NATIONAL SAFETY TOWN WEEK September 20th - 26th, 1981;

I, Albert H. Quie, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of September 20 - 26, 1981 to be and have asked Lieutenant Governor Lou Wangberg to prepare this proclamation for my signature and disseminate the same, to call upon our citizens to participate in this important program to promote Safety Town through the community.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, We have hereunto set our hands and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed this eleventh day of September in the Year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred eighty-one, and of the State the one hundred twenty
