

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Ford Motor Company has been an excellent corporate citizen in Minnesota for more than seventy years; and

WHEREAS: Ford has grown rapidly, and remarkably, in its development and technology, now producing over 28,000 light trucks in an average three-month period; and

WHEREAS: The Ford plant in St. Paul demonstrates unique engineering qualities, since it produces its own electric power, and is the largest non-utility producer of alternative energy in the state; and

WHEREAS: The Ford plant's labor force is one of the most skilled and dedicated in the country, having an average of 15½ years experience with the company, and having a great motto - "When it come to quality, count on my share!"; and

WHEREAS: Because Ford has done so much to add to the quality of living and working in Minnesota;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of August 29, 1983, to be in Minnesota.
