

Proclamation

WHEREAS: The National State Printing Association, now in its seventh year, continues to bring printing officials of various states and other authorized political jurisdictions together to work to improve the quality of printing and to exchange ideas and information; and

WHEREAS: The purposes of the National State Printers Association is to bring printing officials of the various states and other related political jurisdictions into an organization through which they can work to improve the management of printing programs, exchange information, cooperate toward the more effective exercise of production and procurement of printing products and service and to attain greater efficiency and economy in state government; and

WHEREAS: The State Printer of Minnesota recognized the importance of the printing industry and the printed word and the need to share and exchange knowledge of printing; and

WHEREAS: The state of Minnesota, as the "north coast of the nation" is honored to be hosting the National State Printers Association convention,

NOW, THEREFORE, I Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of October 2, 1983 to be

Joan Anderson Howe

NATIONAL STATE PRINTERS WEEK

Rudy Perpich

STATE OF MINNESOTA
DEPARTMENT OF STATE
FILED
OCT 14 1983
Joan Anderson Howe
Secretary of State

34831