

Proclamation

REAS: The President of the United States has proclaimed the week beginning April 23, 1984, as "National Consumers Week"; and

REAS: A major function of our competitive free market system is to satisfy consumer demand; and

REAS: Everyone is a consumer but too often this role is the most neglected in terms of preparation and training; and

REAS: Consumers should have access to a wide assortment of competitively priced goods and services produced here and abroad, accurate information on product content and care, on contractual agreements, on the cost of credit . . . essentially whatever facts are needed to make an informed choice; and

REAS: It is clear that the greatest fairness for consumers can be achieved through the active cooperation of business, government, and consumers themselves working together to insure equity, increased competition, and safety in our free market economy; and

REAS: National Consumers Week will promote dissemination of sound consumer information by both public and private sectors, including the media, on subjects such as complaint handling and on public policy issues which affect consumers; encourage dialogue and cooperation among consumers, business and government; and broaden the scope of consumer and economic education by heightening consumer awareness that we function in a world market -- that our interdependence extends far beyond the boundaries of the United States;

V, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of April 23 through April 29, 1984, to be
