

Proclamation

- REAS: The basis for the continuity of any society is the perception of basic and universal values of ethics and morality, as rooted in the awareness of a Supreme Being, which must permeate family life and the education of our youth; and
- REAS: There exists a need to emphasize and strengthen moral values and ethics which will add to the betterment of the fiber of our society today; and
- REAS: Lubavitch Women's Organization (N'shei Chabad), under the spiritual guidance of the world-renowned leader, the Lubavitcher Rebbe, Rabbi Menachem M. Schneerson, through its world-wide educational activities is especially committed to projects which increase the awareness of women to their great responsibility in preserving those values which are the basis for sound and moral family and community life; and
- REAS: Lubavitch Women's Organization has proclaimed the necessity for a week to reflect on those responsibilities; and
- REAS: These projects serve to strengthen human values and enhance family life and the education of our young;

AND, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of March 16 through March 25, 1984, to be

THE WEEK OF THE JEWISH WOMAN #35093

Minnesota.
