

Proclamation

HEREAS: Dr. Richard P. St. Germain, assistant superintendent for instruction at North St. Paul-Maplewood-Oakdale School District 622, has been named Minnesota Educational Administrator of the Year by the Minnesota Association of Educational Office Personnel; and

HEREAS: Dr. St. Germain began his career as a science teacher in Faribault, then attaining the positions of assistant principal, acting principal, administrative intern, coordinator of research and evaluation and director of youth development project for the Roseville School District, and director of lower division at Boys Town, Nebraska; thereby giving him an immensely valuable and varied background in education; and

HEREAS: For the past eight years, Dr. St. Germain has been associated with District 622, and has been instrumental in carrying out an excellence in education program in the district; and

HEREAS: He is respected and admired by his colleagues and those who work for him, particularly for his willingness to do the difficult tasks, and for his dedication and fairness;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do commend Dr. Richard P. St. Germain for his many accomplishments in the education field, and do hereby proclaim Wednesday, May 1984, to be
