

Proclamation

- EREAS: Minneapolis' licensed long-term care facilities are dedicated to providing quality of life for individuals of all age groups who are afflicted with chronic physical and/or mental impairments; and
- EREAS: The services in these facilities are designed to provide diagnostic preventative, therapeutic, rehabilitative, supportive, and maintenance services to these residents; and
- EREAS: The health care providers in these facilities endeavor to promote the optimum level of physical, social, and psychological functioning among these residents; and
- EREAS: The theme for this celebration is "Memories are made to be shared"; and
- EREAS: The long-term care profession plays an integral role in the health care delivery system in Minneapolis; and
- EREAS: The Minnesota Association of Health Care Facilities demonstrates significant leadership in providing total quality of life and care through educational, legislative, and public information programs; and
- EREAS: The Minnesota Association of Health Care Facilities is participating in a national observance of long-term care, along with the American Health Care Association and its other State affiliates;

W, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of y 13 through May 19, 1984, to be

May

Long-Term Care Week

Minnesota and urge our citizens to join in this observance by acquainting themselves with the important community services provided by long-term care facilities, and support that effort to provide for the care of our disabled citizens of all ages.

OTHER, I encourage all citizens to visit a long-term care facility resident this week to show that care, or be becoming a volunteer or senior companion, to demonstrate to these residents that "Love is Ageless."
