Calvin Coolidge,
President of the United States of America.

To all whom it may concern:

Satisfactory evidence having been exhibited to me that J. C. Wilton has been appointed Vice Consul of the Netherlands, at Minneapolis for the State of Minnesota,

I do hereby recognize him as such, and declare him free to exercise and enjoy such functions, powers and privileges as are allowed to Vice Consuls, by the law of Nations, or by the laws of the United States.

In testimony whereof, I have caused these Letters to be made Patent, and the Seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed.

Done at the City of Washington this Twenty-third day of July, — in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty six, — and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and thirty eighth. —

By the President:

Thomas R. Keney
Secretary of State.

Wilton is Legat
