

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: Minnesota has long been recognized as the premier state in the development and implementation of Chemical Dependency recovery programs designed to restore the health of the millions of Americans who are addicted; and
- WHEREAS: "New Beginnings" day will be celebrated with a special luncheon on the grounds of Maryville Treatment Center in Waverly, Minnesota. The Maryville Center is located on what used to be the Summer estate of Vice President Hubert Humphrey; and
- WHEREAS: Actor, movie star, Dana Andrews, will be the special luncheon speaker. Andrews has long been an outspoken advocate of the recovery industry and is a recognized authority on the disease of alcoholism; and
- WHEREAS: Two hundred Civic and Alcoholism Industry leaders will gather to commemorate the "New Beginnings" program at Maryville. The symbolic raising of an American flag that once flew over the White House, along with the specially designed "New Beginnings" pennant will be accented with the release of hundreds of "New Beginnings" balloons; and
- WHEREAS: On Sunday, June 10th, the public is invited to tour "New Beginnings", Maryville, in Waverly from 1:00 to 4:00 pm. Dana Andrews will be on hand to greet all visitors and sign autographs;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Friday, June 8, 1984, to be
