

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: America's men and women have served their country heroically since the Revolutionary War; and
- WHEREAS: Thousands of Americans have served in those wars, were captured by the enemy or became Missing in Action; and
- WHEREAS: Over 2,500 such men and women were left officially unaccounted for when the conflict in Southeast Asia ended, including 46 Minnesota men; and
- WHEREAS: Additional servicemen remain unaccounted for from the Korean Conflict; and
- WHEREAS: The American government is still receiving reports that indicate the possibility that many others are still alive and being held, thus creating a situation many citizens of Minnesota consider unbearable; and
- WHEREAS: President Ronald Reagan has said, "We accept and remember our obligation to these missing servicemen. Until the POW/MIA issue is resolved, it will remain a matter of the highest national priority"; and
- WHEREAS: This nation now enjoys the blessings of peace because of all its veterans and their dedication to duty, honor and sacrifice, and because we recognize this special debt we owe those Prisoners of War and Missing in Action; and
- WHEREAS: President Reagan has proclaimed July 20, 1984, as "National POW/MIA Recognition Day" and has requested that each state also designate a day; and
- WHEREAS: All POW/MIA organizations, veterans groups and all concerned citizens have requested that a day in July be set aside for all Minnesotans to gather to show their support for a speedy solution to this unresolved POW/MIA situation;
- NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Sunday, July 22, 1984, to be
