

Proclamation

WHEREAS: A friend is the greatest treasure any person can have. A true friend is not only a source of happiness, but one of counsel, comfort, esteem and security; and

WHEREAS: It is important that we take time to treasure our friendships and express appreciation for the joy and wealth they bring; and

WHEREAS: Citizens living in nursing homes and hospitals are extraordinary friends and deserve recognition. Through their gifts of friendship and those of all our friends, lives are still remembered and loved;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Sunday, July 22, 1984, to be in Minnesota in recognition of the tremendous value of all true friendships.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this sixteenth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-four, and of the State the one hundred twenty-seventh.
